

AUGUST 19, 2014 ZONING HEARING
“OTHER BUSINESS”
COMMISSION DISTRICT 1

ITEM OB-39 (continued from the July 15th Zoning Hearing)

PURPOSE

To consider a site plan and stipulation amendment for Patrick Malloy Communities regarding rezoning application Z-167 of 2005 (Cousins Real Estate Corporation), for property located on the east side of Lost Mountain Road, south of Dallas Highway in Land Lots 84, 137, 138, 139 and 159 of the 19th District.

BACKGROUND

The subject property was zoned Conservation Subdivision (CS) in 2006 for a subdivision subject to many zoning stipulations. The property was zoned site plan specific as a result of a settlement of litigation. The applicant purchased this property in May of this year and needs to amend the site plan in order to move forward with their development proposal. The lots and roadways are generally where they were approved, but have been slightly refined. The amenity area was approved along Lost Mountain Road on the 2006 plan. The amenity area is proposed to be moved adjacent to the southeast corner of Lost Mountain Park, which would give better connectivity to the park. The applicant is proposing the same number of lots, the same setbacks, and the same amount of open space. Additionally, the applicant would need to strike stipulation #24 from John Moore’s letter dated October 18, 2006 pertaining to the preservation of a historical resource. The applicant is requesting this stipulation be deleted and replaced with comments from the Historic Preservation Planner dated July 8, 2014 (see attached) since the person specifically named to oversee the stabilization of the servants’ quarters has passed away, and due to the fact that the historic resource has fallen apart due to the elements. If approved, all previous zoning stipulations not in conflict should remain in effect.

Re: Other Business Application of Patrick Malloy–Ballantry Homes Inc. & The Pacific Group, Inc. concerning Z-167 of 2005 (Cousins Real Estate Corporation) approved through a settlement of litigation on November 21, 2006 (OB Item #1).

Dear John:

You will recall that this firm represents Patrick Malloy – Ballantry Homes, Inc. and The Pacific Group, Inc. concerning the above-captioned Other Business Application. The Application is scheduled to be heard and considered by the Cobb County Board of Commissioners on its Other Business Agenda on August 19, 2014.

With respect to the foregoing, enclosed please find the requisite number of copies of a revised site plan which is being submitted in order to amend the site plan approved as a settlement of litigation (Other Business Item #1-November 21, 2006). All other stipulations/conditions concerning the settlement of litigation and the rezoning of the subject property shall remain in full force and effect except my clients' request for a revision to the stipulation regarding the archaeological remnants on the subject property (Paragraph 24 on Page 6 of the October 18, 2006 settlement of litigation letter). In that regard and consistent with recommendations from Cobb County's Historic Preservation Planner, the existing servants' quarters on the subject property will be partially preserved and fenced and an historic marker will be installed recognizing the historical implications of the site.

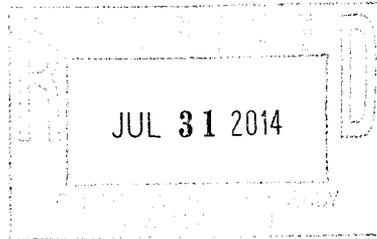

Because of the fact that the servants' quarters have deteriorated considerably since the settlement of litigation in 2006, it is beyond total preservation as recognized by the County's Historic Preservation Planner and by virtue of the archaeological reconnaissance completed by R.S. Webb & Associates. However, both the servants' quarters as well as the early twentieth century house on the property will be fully documented by way of a written history of the remnants and their respective occupants which will be completed by a cultural planner prior to the submission of a demolition permit. The Applicants also agree to pay to Cobb County the sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) which shall be utilized for future historic preservation projects within Cobb County as recommended by the Historic Preservation Planner.

As mentioned above, all other stipulations/conditions of the settlement of litigation concerning the subject property shall remain in full force and effect. Note, however, that the revised site plan features an unfronted Parkway Entrance and much better location for the amenities component. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions whatsoever regarding these matters or should you or your staff need additional information or documentation prior to the Application being heard and considered by the Cobb County Board of Commissioners on August 19, 2014. This settlement letter of agreeable stipulations and conditions shall supersede and replace in full any and all other letters of agreeable stipulations and conditions submitted in connection with the Application for Rezoning and the zoning appeal not specifically enumerated herein; and specifically replaces in full that certain letter of agreeable stipulations and conditions dated February 1, 2006, and attached to the official minutes of the Board of Commissioners Zoning Hearing held on February 21, 2006. Mandy Elliott, Cobb County Historic Preservation Planner

Kyle Creek – Other Business Item 39 of 2014

This property is located south of Dallas Highway, on the east side of Lost Mountain Road. It was originally part of a rezoning (Z-167 of 2005). There was subsequent litigation and as a result of mediation in 2006, certain historic preservation stipulations were included in the settlement. They included the following:

“Applicant agrees to work with Dr. Phil Secrist to clean-up the area around, to install a new roof, and to stabilize the existing structure denominated as the ‘Servants’ Quarters.’ Further, Applicant agrees to install a historical marker relating to the history of the site.”

Developers are now coming through with an Other Business Item to pursue development of the project. During discussions with a previous applicant last year, the applicant stated the Servants’ Quarters structure was currently in bad condition. Mandy Elliott, along with John Pederson, made a site visit last summer on July 2, 2013. The structure, which was ruins at the time of the rezoning and had no roof, is now in very poor condition. There are piles of rock and significant sections of the walls have fallen over. Ongoing exposure to the elements over the last year has probably continued the decline of the ruins. Please see the photographs below that were taken last summer.

Staff recognizes that the Servants' Quarter has deteriorated considerably since the litigation settlement in 2006 and may be beyond preservation. While complete or partial demolition of the structure may be proposed, the structure was identified for its historical and architectural significance in the R. S. Webb & Assoc. report dated September 2, 2005. The following are recommendations if the developer proposes to demolish the Servants' Quarters. These recommendations could be used in lieu of the stipulations agreed to in the litigation settlement upon agreement with the Cobb County Board of Commissioners. Any changes to the stipulations would have to be approved before the Board of Commissioners as an Other Business agenda item.

- If the Servants' Quarters is demolished, the site shall remain undeveloped as part of the proposed open space.
- The stipulation regarding the installation of the historic marker would remain intact and would be placed at the site of the Servants' Quarters.

- The applicant will have the Servants' Quarters, as well as the earthly 20th century house on the property, thoroughly documented before demolition of either structure occurs. In order to properly document this structure, its inhabitants, and the role it played in Cobb County's history, staff requests a history of the home and its occupants (as well as archival-quality photographs of the structure, all outbuildings, and its setting) be completed by a cultural resource consultant. These materials should be submitted to the historic preservation planner before a demolition permit and land disturbance permit are obtained.
- The applicant will pay $15,000 in mitigation money. The money will be set aside for future historic preservation projects in Cobb County.
